

MARKEY BLUE RIC LATINA PROJECT

The high energy blues/ american roots duo along with their touring band Markey Blue Ric Latina Project is flying high into 2018.

After recently being signed to Eilersoul Records and the release of their latest album Raised In Muddy Water, the band is bringing their new sound to life. The band has been headlining and playing festivals and clubs around the country and worldwide. Markey and Latina collectively have a studio and touring history that reads like a "who's who" in the entertainment world.

"Jointly heading one of the best bands in the business, Markey Blue and Ric Latina are literally a sight to see and hear. Markey is one of the most soulful, strong vocalists in the business and also a bundle of energy who never stops moving, while Ric is a spectacular guitarist and one of the few who can hold his own next to Markey. Those who come to the show leave exhausted and exhilarated, and anxious to have the chance to experience it all again."

– Rhetta Akamatsu, MakingAScene.org

"They would blow you right out of your shoes if you caught the act in a club."

– Bill Wilson, Bill Town Blues

"Never a dull moment when this act hits the stage."

– Dennis Reeves, Reeves Guitars

"I won't be surprised to see this band getting a nomination soon for Entertainer of the Year"

– Gil Anthony, host of Blues Power on WWNT Radio

"Is it tornado season? Because you're gonna get hit with the Markey Blue Ric Latina Project tornado when they hit the stage."

– Ted Drozdowski, Senior Editor, Premier Guitar

"We're only midway through 2018, but it's already a clear contender for one of this year's best bets."

– Lee Zimmerman, Living Blues Magazine
